News 2024

This book presents the new aI2 collection for 2024, where new designs and new collaborations were made.

This year aI2 added two new Italian designers in its portfolio, Antonio Facco and Simone Ciarmoli & Miguel Queda. The new collection includes products for the dining and living area, adding innovative and fresh designs to its portfolio.

Echo Dining Table

Design by Antonio Facco

Harmonizing design with nature, achieving an elegant and authentic synthesis. The legs, crafted to resemble smoothed and weathered monoliths, confirm an artistic interpretation of natural elements, blending simplicity and beauty by combining the strength of stones with human creativity.

Eterna Cabinet

Design by Antonio Facco

A dialogue between materials and forms that is confirmed in the refined elegance of the details. An extremely versatile piece designed to harmonize with different spaces and styles. A timeless design with a modular system that fits to any space.

Clara Chair

Design by Simone Ciarmoli & Miguel Queda

Minimal retro elegance, oak and walnut structure, geometric lines that soften as they curve under the upholstered seat, like the dynamic light backrest that marks the modern balance of the piece with a design spirit.

A long, dark, minimalist sideboard with a flat top and a few open shelves. A golden, dome-shaped lamp sits on the surface.

A modern chair with a dark frame and a light-colored, textured seat and backrest.

A round, dark dining table with three thick, curved legs. A decorative object, possibly a vase or sculpture, sits on the table.

A tall, leafy green plant in a simple, cylindrical pot.

A long, thin, black pendant light fixture with a glowing, wavy white light source inside.

A white, double-door entrance with a simple design and a central handle.

Bonet Sofa

Design by Simone Ciarmoli & Miguel Queda

Modular, sculptural and compact units, soft and welcoming, with glimmers of light and cylindrical cushions, having a global allure capable of seamlessly integrating with a lot of class, in both casual and formal settings.

Telmo Side table

Design by Simone Ciarmoli & Miguel Queda

Side table in total lacquer that works as a "pasepartout" and can be used in different spaces. It is available in more than 20 different finishes and can be used as a coffee table, as a reading table or as a table for decorative objects.

Dakry art Table

Design by aI2 Lab

Crafted with architectural elegance and premium quality, blending luxury marquetry with avant-garde radial motifs, complemented by two columns at its base. A design that radiates a bold personality through geometric simplicity, delivering a unique and unmistakable artistic statement.
